

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of fresh paint. It was a mix of turpentine and something I couldn't quite identify, but it felt like a clean slate. The walls were a pale yellow, and the floor was a light brown. It was simple, but it felt like a home.

3
Fis

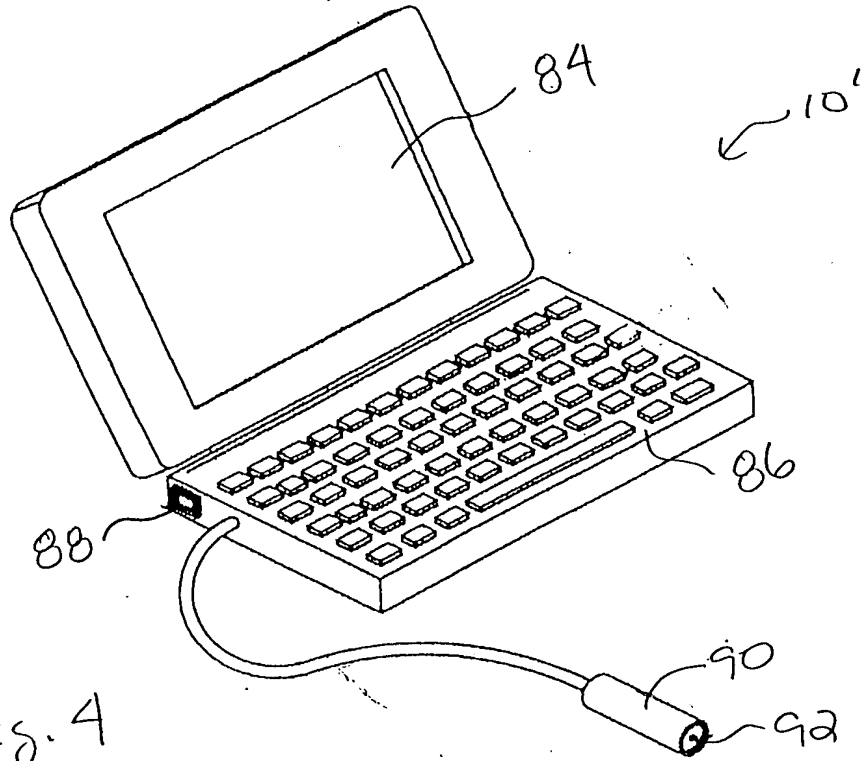

Fig. 4

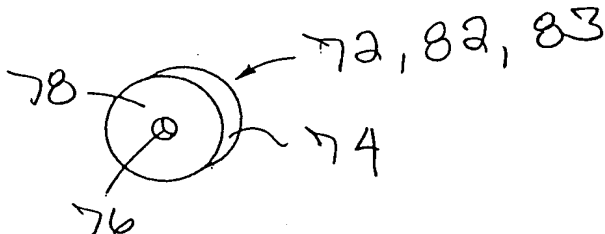

Fig. 5

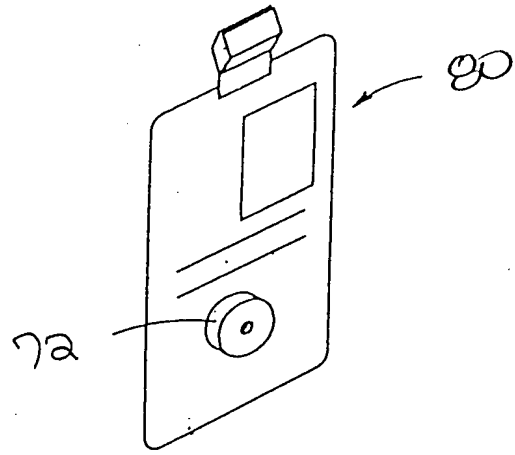

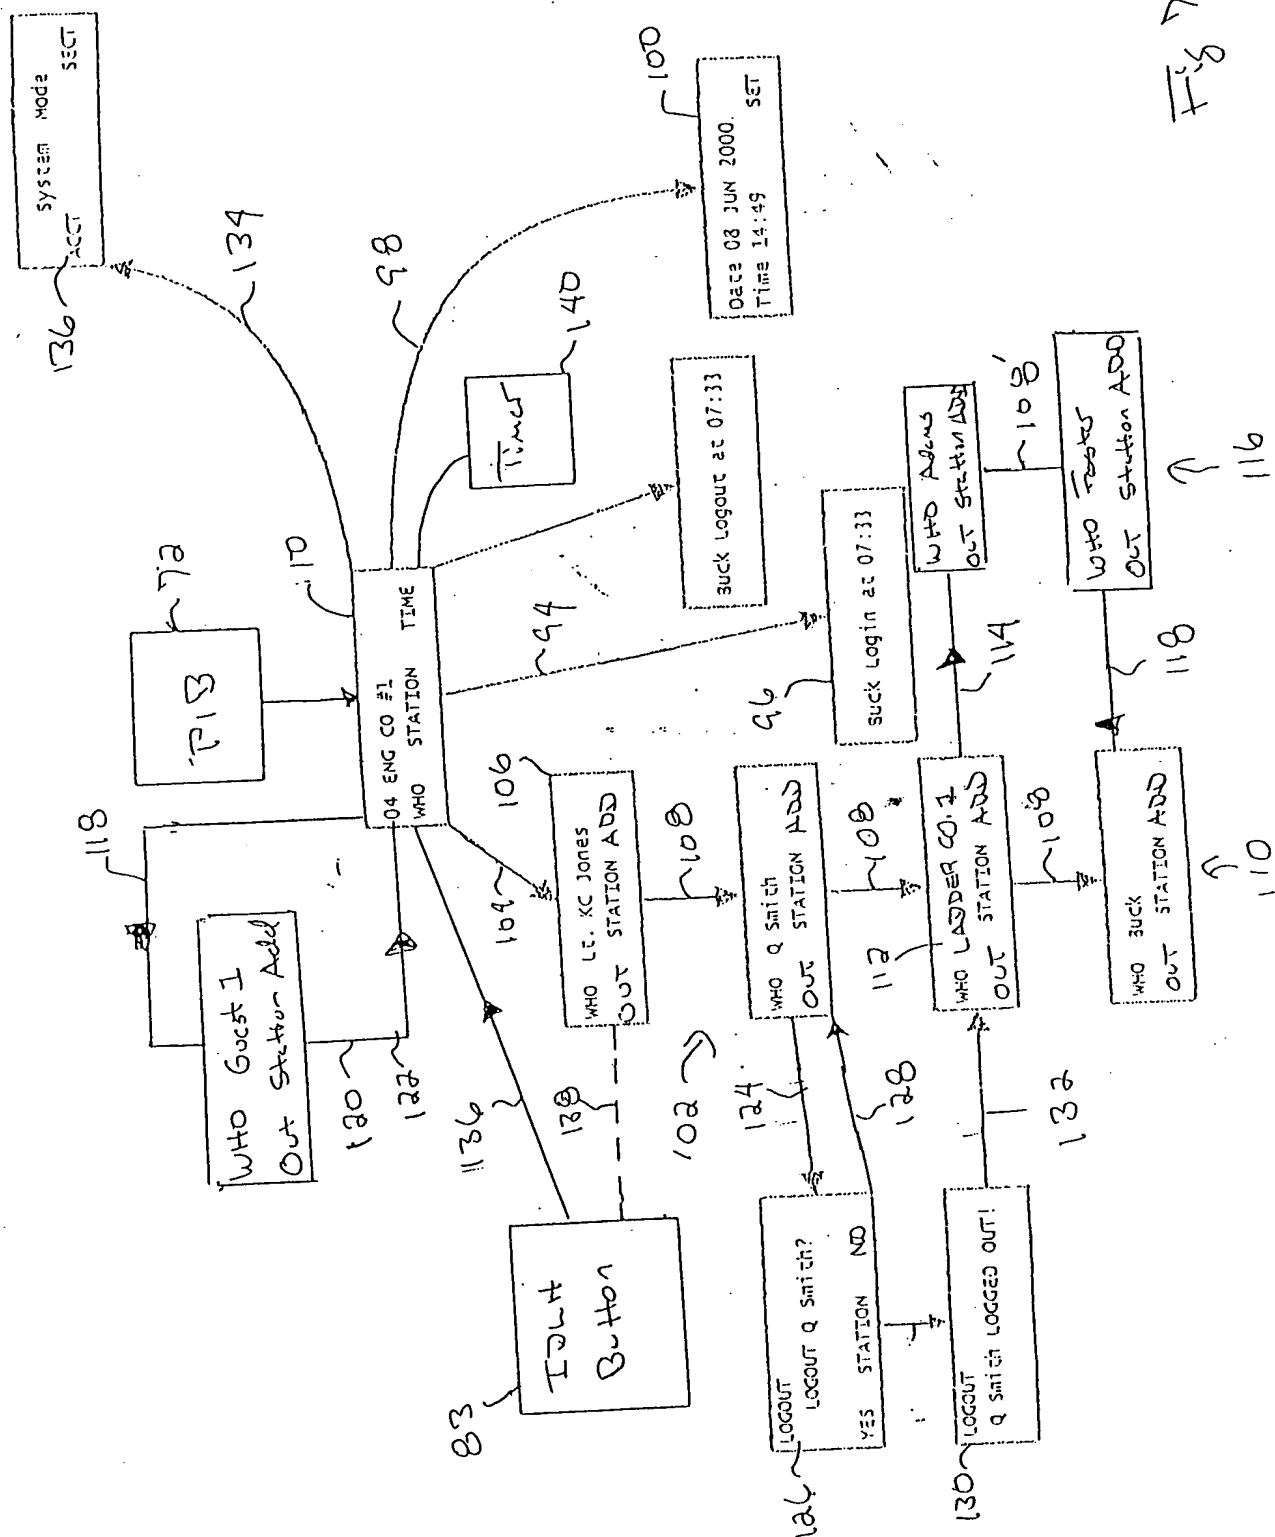

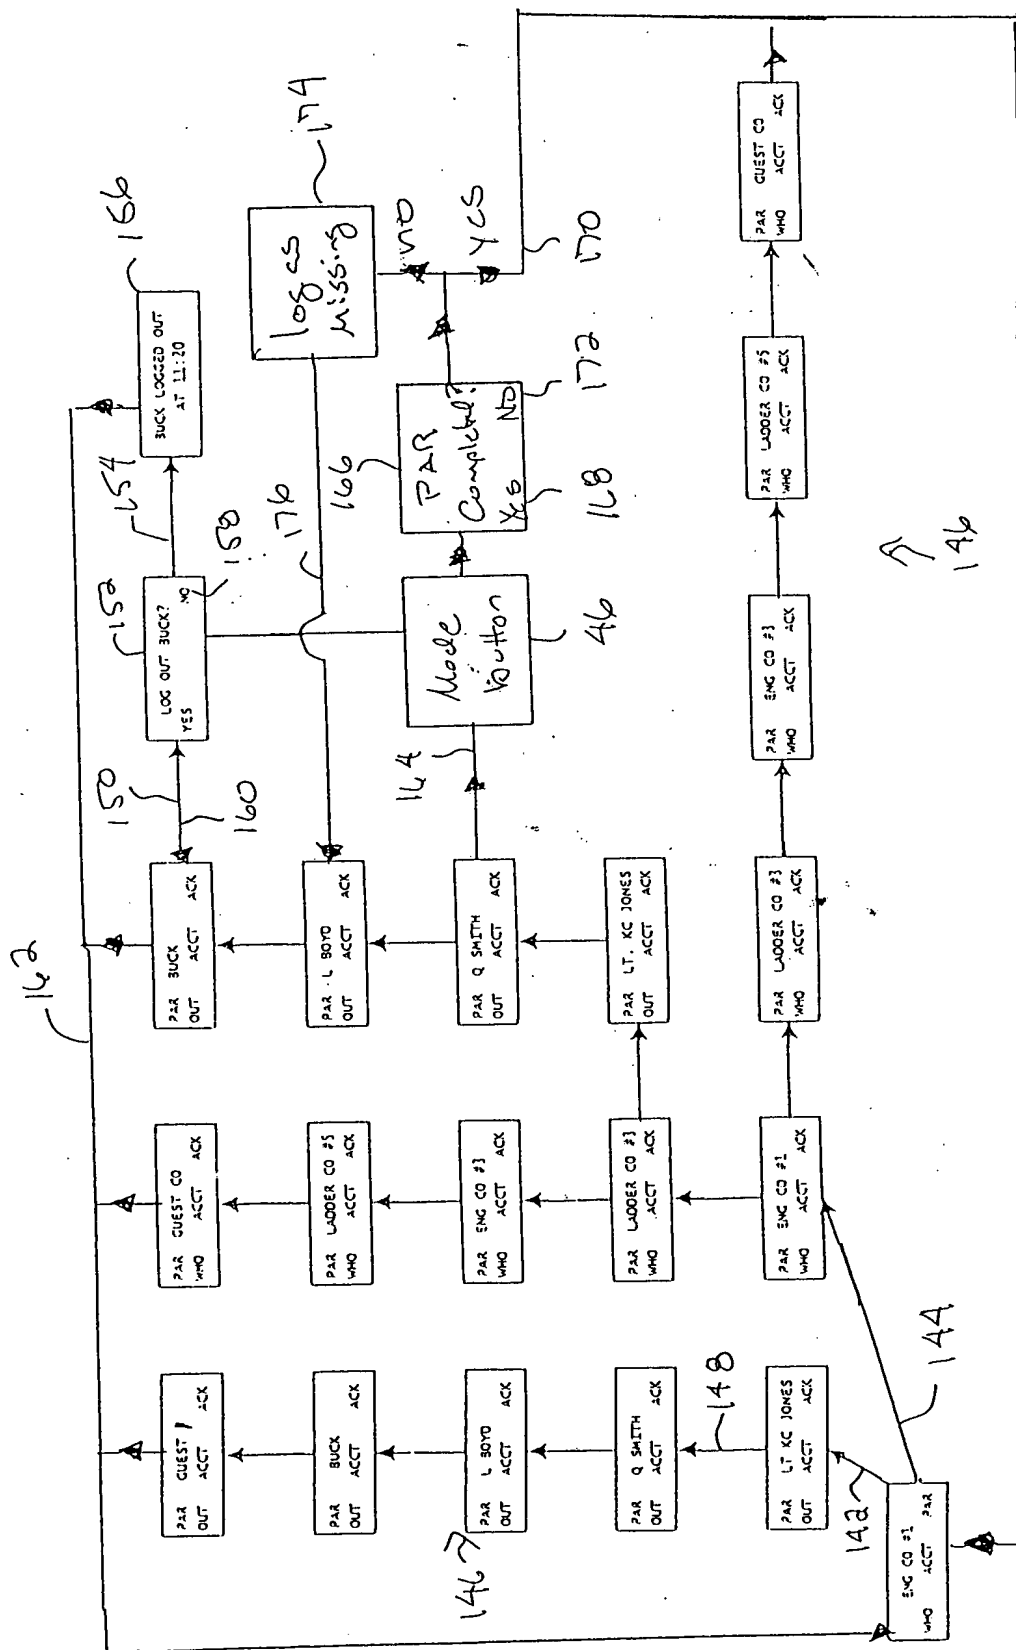

Fig. 6

1257

op
|
L

When a person arrives at the scene and logs into the Accountability Instrument or Community Transfer Tag

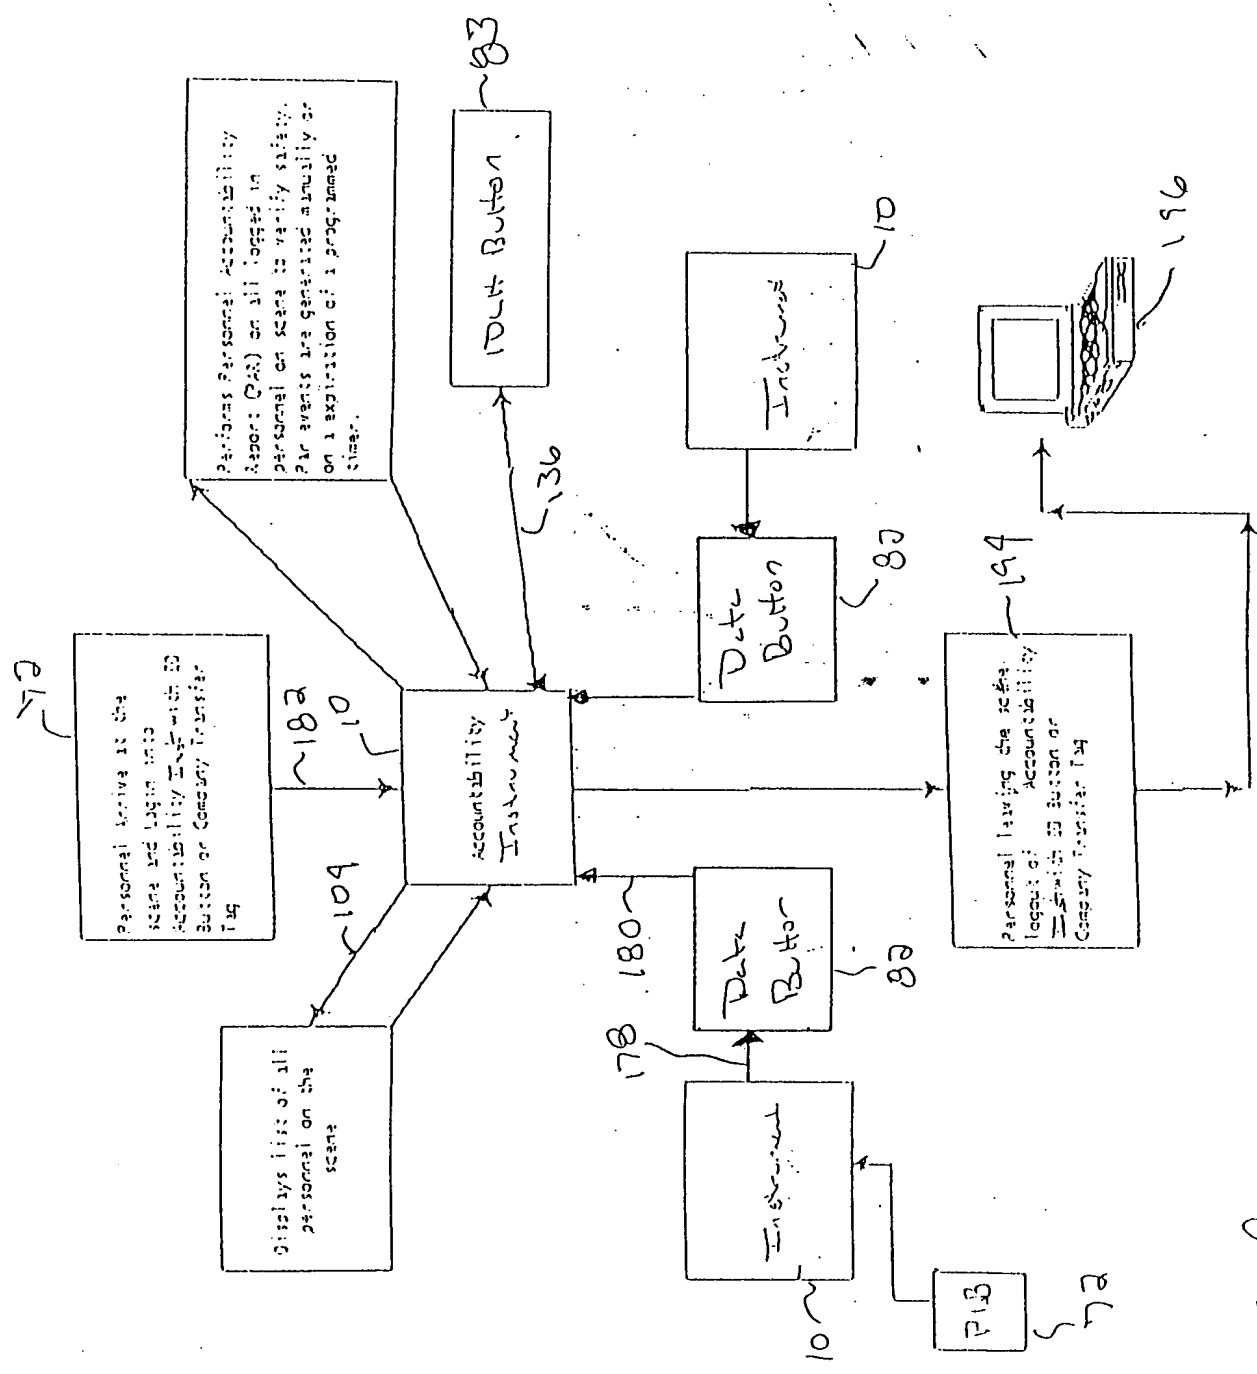

FIG. 10

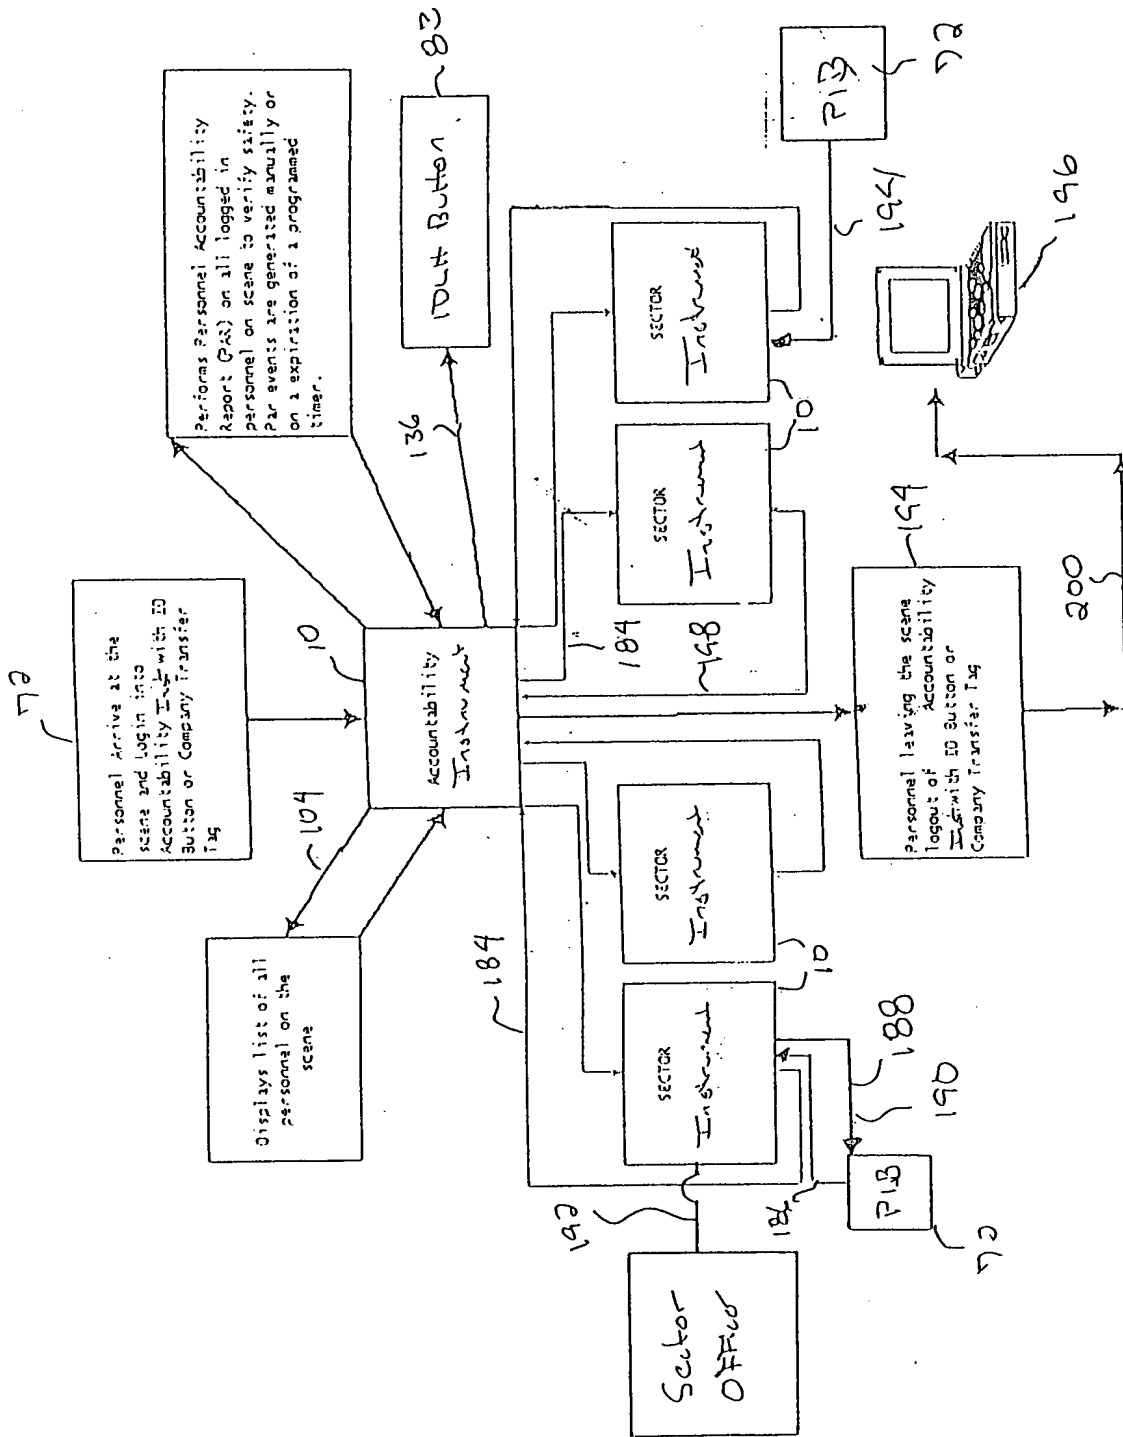

FIG. 10